THE END

CLASSROOM CLASSICS

NEVER TOO LATE. In 1894 James C. Mason worked as a hod carrier in the construction of Central High School in Philadelphia. Fifty one years later he enrolled as a student at the school, taking night courses in English and mathematics.

CLASSROOM WIZARD. At the age of 6, Charles Fritz was enrolled in the first grade of the local public school near his home in Chester, Pa. Within the short space of 6 months he advanced to the fifth grade. Teachers had found his mental I.Q. to be that of a 5th year student.

THE END OF SCHOOL. S. B. McCracken, who served as a teacher in the public schools of Elkhart, Indiana, for more than 50 years, had a simple granite marker erected in Grace Lawn Cemetery to mark his final resting place. The inscription on it reads "School is Out; Teacher has Gone Home."

GRID SCHOOL. Out of a total of 42 boys enrolled at Winslow High School (Illinois), 28 of them reported for football practice when coach Jack McKenna called for players. (1949)

LONE STUDENT. Carolyn White, six year old student of the elementary school at Trout River, New York, comprised the entire class. Twelve of her fellow students had transferred to another school. Miss Elizabeth Dineen, the teacher, received $2,000 a year for teaching Carolyn, while heat and books cost another $400.00.

NIGHT LOSS. When Saugus High School of Newburyport, Mass., defeated Newburyport High School in a night football game, they were elated. But not for long. At the end of the game the stadium was thrown into darkness by a failure of the lighting system. During the blackout a thief entered the quarters of the Saugus team, rifled their pockets and left the entire squad penniless.

THRILLS of the HOT RODS

PUSHING FOR GLORY. One contest that Ralph DePalma, veteran auto racer, would prefer to disregard in his memoirs, would be the Indianapolis Speedway affair of 1912. In this particular race DePalma led the field going into the last lap, when suddenly without warning, his gas line broke. Precious moments passed as Ralph and his mechanic attempted to repair it. Failing in this, the two men on a sudden impulse got behind the car and pushed it the rest of the way around the track, to finish second behind Joe Dawson. Their efforts were wasted, however, for they were disqualified and second place position was given to Bill Tetzloff.

RETURN FROM THE DEAD. One of the most dramatic incidents in the long list of the 500 mile Indianapolis Speedway runs occurred in the 1934 race. Chet Miller was speeding over the track at a rate of 115 miles per hour when his car skidded on a patch of oil. The vehicle was whirled into the air and thrown over the wall as thousands of spectators screamed with horror at the sight. Miraculously, Miller's car landed on its 4 wheels in a field adjoining the track. Chet was able to drive his car around the outside wall, through a gate, and into the pits. His crew, who had given him up for dead, stared in utter disbelief as Miller without a single scratch on him watched the rest of the race, glad to be alive.

PIKE'S PEAK OR BUST. What is probably the craziest automobile race in the world is the one which is run along the narrow, twisting, roads leading to the summit of Pike's Peak, 14,000 feet above sea level. The race takes place once a year and only the best of the daredevil racers are able to complete the run. The best time for the race was set by Louis Unser in 1946, when he twisted his car along the dangerous cliff-sides at a speed of almost 52 miles per hour. He travelled the 12½ mile distance in less than 15½ minutes.

Exclusive whirling spinner in nozzle provides a continuous, forceful, even spray that lays paint on smooth and covers surface thoroughly. Push-pull spray regulator at top of housing gives instant, handy, thumb-control of spray while painting. Automatic, self-priming pump drains every drop of paint from the jar, right down to the bottom, no matter how often you stop or start. Saves on painting costs, eliminates waste. The new Burgess DeLuxe Electric Sprayer is complete in itself, no motor, no compressor, no complicated equipment. You need no skill or experience—you simply "plug in and spray." The one low price of only $10.95 brings the Burgess DeLuxe Sprayer to you complete, ready to use. But hurry, the supply is limited. So rush your order on the handy coupon today.

HE'S MOLESTING ME!

PLEASE BE SO KIND AS TO EXPLAIN THIS, DILLY!

WE..UH..STARTED A BABY-SITTING SERVICE, BUT I... ER...GUESS IT GOT A LITTLE OUT OF HAND! WE'RE GONNA GET RID OF THESE KIDS AS SOON AS WE CAN!

CAN YOU FIX MY AIRPLANE, MISTER?
